

Shine a Light on the Dark Web: Keeping teens safe on the internet

Presented by Carol Gudbrandsen, Cyber/White Collar Crimes Division, Lake County State's Attorney's Office
February 26, 2019

WEBSITE AND SOFTWARE REFERENCE

Resources

Family Online Safety Institute (www.fosi.org)

Webwise (www.webwise.ie)

Cyberbullying Research Center (cyberbullying.org)

Stop Bullying (www.stopbullying.gov)

Podcast: Kids Online (www.doj.state.wi.us/dci/icac/protect-kids-online-pko-podcast)

National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (missingkids.com)

Netsmartz (netsmartz.org) & (netsmartzkids.org)

Common Sense Media (commonsensemedia.org)

BOOK: Outsmarting Your Kids Online, by Amber Mac/Michael Bazzell

Cyberbullying training course: www.nw3c.org/online-training/online-course-detail/105

CYN (Community Youth Network) (cyngrayslake.org)

Software

Netnanny (netnanny.com)

Teensafe (teensafe.com)

WebWatcher (webwatcher.com)

My Mobile Watchdog (mymobilewatchdog.com)

Drive ID (cellcontrol.com)

Contact Information:

Carol Gudbrandsen, Cyber Crimes Analyst, cgudbrandsen@lakecountyil.gov

Community – The Anti-Drug (CTAD) is a 501(c)3 collaborative coalition working to reduce substance use among youth in Bannockburn, Deerfield, Highland Park, Highwood and Riverwoods.

www.CommunityTheAntiDrug.org • info@CommunityTheAntiDrug.org • 224-765-CTAD (2823)